

Sinclair Broadcast Group's reworked program to air before the election is just another way of doing exactly what they want. They are not thinking of their shareholders but of partisan politics. I believe the FCC should step in and stop the show, OR, give equal time to the opposing side free of charge. Letting this group renew their license would make the FCC an accomplice in the above event.

thanks, Phoenicia Zeller